In this proposed revision to the course objectives for SBM 204, specific examples of disorders covered in the SBM Psychiatry course have been added to make the first nine objectives more explicit and more searchable in the curriculum management system, Ilios. The additions are in red italics.

1. Describe the signs and symptoms of Mood Disorders and related conditions (including major depressive disorder, bipolar disorders, and persistent depressive disorder) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments.

2. Describe the signs and symptoms of Psychotic Disorders and related conditions (including schizophrenia, schizoaffective disorder, and delusional disorder) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments.

3. Describe the signs and symptoms of Anxiety Disorders and related conditions (including generalized anxiety disorder, panic disorder, OCD, and post-traumatic stress disorder) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments.

4. Describe the signs and symptoms of Substance Use Disorders and related conditions (including alcohol, cannabis, opioid, and other substance use disorders) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments.

5. Describe the signs and symptoms of Neurodevelopmental and Neurocognitive Disorders and related conditions (including delirium, mild and major neurocognitive disorders, ADHD, autism spectrum disorder, and traumatic brain injury) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments.

6. Describe the signs and symptoms of Somatoform Disorders and related conditions (including somatic symptom disorder, illness anxiety disorder, and functional neurologic symptom disorder) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments.

7. Describe the signs and symptoms of Eating Disorders and related conditions (including anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa, and binge eating disorder) along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments

8. Describe the signs and symptoms of Sleep Disorders and related conditions including insomnia, narcolepsy, obstructive sleep apnea and circadian rhythm disorders along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments

9. Describe the signs and symptoms of Personality Disorders and related conditions including borderline personality disorder along with current knowledge of risk factors, pathophysiology, and management strategies including both pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic treatments