Monday, January 10, 2011

Patrick Carroll, MD, DMS ‘84
Medical Director, Teen Life Center, North Navajo Medical Center, Shiprock, NM, and Coordinator of School-Based Health Centers, Shiprock Service Unit, Navajo Area Indian Health Service

Lunchtime Talk
“Adolescent Medicine on the Navajo Reservation: Health Risk Screening and School-based Health Clinics.”
Sponsored by the Family Medicine Interest Group
12:15 p.m., Chilcott Auditorium
RSVP by January 5 to Inger.Imset@dartmouth.edu or call 653-6670

Fireside Career Chat
“Adolescent Medicine: From a New Hampshire Boarding School to the Navajo Reservation”
An informal presentation on his career journey in medicine for DMS students, alumni, faculty, D-H residents and the Dartmouth community
5:30 p.m., Reception
6:00 p.m., Informal Talk by Dr. Carroll
Treasure Room, Baker-Berry Library
RSVP by January 5 to DMS.Alumni.Relations@dartmouth.edu or call 653-0741

Sponsored by the Dartmouth Medical School
Office of Alumni Relations