MEDICINE 2000 – NEW OPTIONS, HARD CHOICES

DARTMOUTH MEDICAL SCHOOL, VERMONT LAW SCHOOL and DARTMOUTH-HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER are pleased to offer an outstanding series of sessions that address the complex scientific, legal and ethical issues confronting health care today.

SIX WEEKLY SESSIONS

OFFERED ON THURSDAY EVENINGS

Session 1:

- ADDICTION:
Gaining new insights, fighting old biases.

Session 2:

- GENETIC TESTING:
How accurate, how useful, how ominous?

Session 3:

- HIV & AIDS:
Situation hopeful, but desperate!

Session 4:

- ENVIRONMENTAL TOXINS:
Are our public policies rational?

Session 5:

- INFERTILITY:
The thrill of victory, the agony of defeat.

Session 6:

- ENGINEERING NEW BODY PARTS:
Out with the old, in with the new.

Offered in association with
 DARTMOUTH-HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

THE HONORABLE JEANNE SHAHEEN,
Governor of New Hampshire, guest speaker at Session 1.

DARTMOUTH MEDICAL SCHOOL:

Each session will feature professors from the Medical School, representing a wide range of disciplines including Anesthesiology, Gynecology, Medicine, Microbiology, Obstetrics, Pathology, Pharmacology, Physiology, Psychiatry, Surgery, and Toxicology.

VERMONT LAW SCHOOL:

Many of today's advances in medicine raise complex legal and ethical questions. A legal expert from Vermont Law School will join us for each session in order to address these issues.

SPECIAL GUESTS:

Additional special guests from state government and other areas have been invited to help us understand the implications of changes in medicine for the overall health of our region.
