

Dartmouth Community Medical School

CANCER, NUTRITION AND THE ENVIRONMENT

OVERVIEW AND GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

John Baron, MD - *Professor of Medicine and of Community and Family Medicine,
Dartmouth Medical School*

THE EFFECTS OF DIET ON THE OCCURRENCE OF CANCER AND OTHER MAJOR DISEASES

Walter Willett, MD, Dr. PH - Frederick John Stare Professor of Epidemiology and Nutrition, Harvard School of Public Health & Professor of Medicine, Harvard Medical School

ENVIRONMENTAL TOXINS: HOW MUCH CAUSE FOR CONCERN?

Joshua Hamilton, PhD - *Professor of Pharmacology and Toxicology,
Dartmouth Medical School*

NOVEMBER 16, 2006 * 6:30 - 8:30 PM

FILENE AUDITORIUM
MOORE HALL
DARTMOUTH COLLEGE
Light Refreshments Served at 6 PM

THIRD ANNUAL
GREAT ISSUES IN MEDICINE AND GLOBAL HEALTH SYMPOSIUM

CANCER • 2006

For more information, recommended
reading, and community resources, visit the symposium web site at:

www.dhmc.org/goto/great-issues.

For additional program information, please call Sarah Castle at Dartmouth's Center for Continuing Education in the Health Sciences, (603) 653-1512.

