SPEAKER | Gregory R. Johnson, MD

Dr. Gregory Johnson serves as Chief Medical Officer for Sound Physicians’ hospital medicine service line. He is responsible for clinical leadership and initiatives, including clinical management, service line integration, and dissemination of innovative staffing models across the organization. A number of his programs received system and national awards for clinical performance.

Dr. Johnson is a graduate of Dartmouth College; the McGovern School of Medicine at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Houston; and he completed his residency training in both internal medicine and family practice at the Ochsner Clinic in New Orleans, where he also served as chief resident.

Dr. Johnson is a Fellow in the American Academy of Family Physicians, the American College of Physicians, and a Senior Fellow in the Society of Hospital Medicine. He is an active member of the Texas Medical Association, where he currently serves on its Foundation board as treasurer; he recently stepped down from his seat as Council on Legislation; and is a past chair of its Young Physicians section. He is also past-president of the Harris County Academy of Family Physicians and was a former leader within the Texas College of Physicians. Dr. Johnson was recently awarded for outstanding role in healthcare by the National Black MBA Association. He also maintains a clinical faculty role with his medical school alma mater.

Dr. Johnson is the proud father of Garrison (18) and Dominic (15) and is an active member of his community through St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church and US Soccer as a referee.
