

Course objective	Geisel competency	Course Objective
1	1d, 2b, 3c	To demonstrate and conduct a streamlined patient interview.
2	1d, 2b, 3c, 5a	To effectively apply the functions and structure of the medical interview.
3	3b	To demonstrate the ability to be an active listener.
4	1f, 2e, 3c, 3i, 6f	To report and record diagnosis information completely and accurately to manage a patient's biomedical and psychosocial problems.
5	3e, 5d, 6c, 6f	To apply patient-centered counseling skills to facilitate behavior change.
6	1a, 1f, 2c, 2i, 3c, 3d	To organize and Perform a complete normal physical exam.
7	1a, 1f, 2c, 2i, 3c, 3d	To operate and execute the individual elements of the normal physical exam.
8	2a, 4e, 4g, 6j	To apply empathy and confidentiality to issues of patient privacy.
9	2a	To express comfort for the patient in performing the physical exam.
10	1f, 3c, 3d	To perform a focused physical exam by applying the relevant patient history to the exam.
11	1c	To document a complete write-up of an outpatient history and physical.
12	2d, 2f, 3f, 3g, 3h	To organize and present clinical data in a clear, concise manner.
13	1a, 2e	To describe normal and abnormal physical findings in clinical write-ups.
14	2d, 3f, 3g, 3h	To prepare and practice basic oral presentations.
15	2a, 3a	To develop effective doctor-patient relationships.
16	4f, 4g, 4h	To develop working relationships with other health care providers.
17	1e, 4a	To implement professional and ethical conduct as a physician.
18	4c, 4e, 5e	To evaluate how your own values and attitudes influence your relationships with patients.
19	2a, 3c, 3g, 3h, 4a, 4g, 4h, 6b	To demonstrate professional behavior in all aspects including preparation and active participation in all aspects of the course, intellectual honesty, as well as respect for patients, families, colleagues, and faculty.
20	3f, 3g, 3h, 6b	To identify group dynamics and your role as a team member.
21	4i, 4k, 5e, 6i	To prepare time for reflection on challenges (i.e. balancing personal and professional life, personal reactions to clinical work, and your identity as a physician).
22	2d, 3h, 5e, 6b	To construct effective relationships, communication, and problem-solving with other health care professionals and patients.