

Course objective	Geisel competency	Course Objective
1	1f, 3d,	Describe how and why patients and families seek care.
2	3b	Explain how feedback from patients and families is used to improve care in systems.
3	6d, 6f	Describe the levels of the healthcare system, from self-care through global.
4	6g, 6h	Become comfortable with quantitative information to describe and analyze health, healthcare practices, and the healthcare system.
5	5b	Develop the basic skills for critical appraisal of the literature.
6	5e, 6f	Identify how leaders of healthcare organizations can facilitate system level changes and improvement.
7	4j, 5f	Explain the physician's role in improving systems of care delivery.
8	3g, 3h, 4b, 6b	Identify key professions that need to come together in order to deliver excellent care.
9	6b, 6d, 6e	Describe and begin to analyze a local microsystem of care.
10	5b, 5c	Explain why more care does not equal better care.
11	6i, 6j	Recognize the social determinants of health (poverty, race, gender, religion, geography) and the physician's role in addressing health disparities.
12	5f	Demonstrate awareness of the vulnerabilities that exist in the healthcare system.
13	1a, 5a, 5b, 5c	Describe the value and limitations of evidence-based medicine.