FEATURED STORIES

Reflections on the White Coat

Every year, first-year medical students celebrate a rite of passage in medicine when they receive their short white coats, symbolic of their status as physicians in training. Daniela Armella Tangarife, a third-year medical student, reflects on what the white coat means to her, as Geisel prepares for the Class of 2030 White Coat Ceremony

The White Coat Ceremony for the Geisel MD Class of 2030 will be held on Friday, September 25 at 2:00 PM in Moore Theater at the Hopkins Center. We will be streaming live video of the ceremony so that friends, family, and colleagues can join in the excitement.

Healthy Aging: A Framework for Improving Care of Older Adults

Terry Fulmer, an adjunct professor of medicine at Geisel School of Medicine, nurse, and leading expert in geriatric care, has spent her career dedicated to improving the lives and healthcare of older adults.

Geisel's 2026 Homecoming Tailgate Party

The Dean's Office invites all Geisel faculty, staff, and students to the 2026 Geisel Homecoming Tailgate Party on Saturday, October 3 from 11:00 AM to 1:30 PM (rain or shine!). RSVP at dartgo.org/tailgate2026

2026 Leading Forward Feedback Survey

The 2026 Leading Forward Feedback Survey is open to all Dartmouth-paid Geisel faculty and staff. It will remain open through Friday, October 9. This annual survey is how the Office of the Dean hears from you directly and takes only about 15 minutes to complete. Your responses inform our progress against our strategic goals and help us determine where we focus next. To participate, please look for an email from "Leading Forward Feedback" via Culture Amp. Questions about the survey, the platform, or how responses are handled can go to Geisel Human Resources.
