For Associate and Full Professors

February 6-8, 2024

Presented by the Rush Offices of Faculty Affairs and Mentoring Programs, Rosalind Franklin University, and Southern Illinois University.

Our institutions are offering an outstanding opportunity for you to propel your professional growth. Our innovative, continuing education eligible course addresses crucial leadership and professional challenges for faculty in different stages of their careers. Over three days, you'll strengthen skills that include:

- Tools and tactics for leadership
- Strategies for promotion
- Scholarship in academic settings
- Establishing effective mentoring relationships
- Navigating conflict resolution and difficult conversations
- Maintaining resilience and work-life balance strategies
- Career advancement through prioritization and time efficiency

Sessions will be held from 2 p.m. - 5 p.m. each day on Zoom. Attendance is required for all three days.
