femuroplasty

Preop: prominent outgrowth of bone at the femoral neck junction typical of hips presenting with cam-type impingement Postop: notice the deficiency of bone at the anterior surface of the femoral neck – best seen on the lateral view. On the AP view the neck looks less dense.
Preop and postop
femuroplasty

Preop

Postop

Resources for additional information http://www.americanhipinstitute.org/hip-injuries/impingement/https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yr0iUbL-hoc